EWI Chattanooga Reading Rally is October 21, 2006

Every year we support local children with our Reading Rally. It's one morning of reading related fun. The local Head Start children will be the recipients of EWI support. We are going to need volunteers to read stories, guide reading games and help with crafts. We are also seeking donations for these activities.

Representatives, please join us for our annual Reading Rally to be held on Saturday, October 21 from 10am to noon at the Soddy Daisy Head Start Center, 9531 Ridgetrail Road. Directions are available from Joey Martel-James of Chattanooga Head Start. Remember Chattanooga Head Start is an EWI Member Firm.

New Owner for The Concierge Level, LLC

The Concierge Level, LLC is proud to announce the new owner is Denise Reed. She looks forward to continuing to serve as Publications Director and serving on the Public Relations committee for E.W.I.

United Way Campaign

Delores Lewis with United Way has set a fundraising campaign goal of 100% participation of EWI member firms or reps. If you haven't donated to United Way yet, would you please consider sending United Way? Deloris Lewis, c/o United Way, 630 Market Street, Chattanooga, TN 37402

Congratulations to Derryberry Public Relations

Derryberry Public Relations had an article in "Commercial Network Magazine" October 2006 issue. It was great to get to know a little more about the firm and Robin Derryberry.

We Want Your Old Cell Phones and Used Ink Jet Cartridges!

Remember your old cell phones and ink cartridges for the August meeting. Ways and Means will ship them to the recycling center for our members. Our chapter is then presented with a check for recycling these items. Join us in this new fund raising project.

The Board has posted Ways and Means two fundraising fliers to choose for recycling old cell phones and used ink jet cartridges on our web site http://www.ewichattanooga.org/PDFS/ecophones_flier.pdf. Members can just print the flier and tape it on their boxes to collect ink cartridges, and cell phones.

Share Your Company With Us

The Chapter Board would like to announce an opportunity for your company to share the latest news about your product or service. Member firms will have the opportunity to present a two-minute infomercial during our monthly meetings. Please contact Kelly Puckett with Kennedy, Coulter, Rushing & Watson, LLC, via email. She will schedule your infomercial presentation.

Chattanooga Chapter President’s Message

Our premiere scholarship fundraiser, the 9th Annual Barnyard Auction, is just around the corner! I look forward to seeing each of you at the Choo-Choo October 19 at 5:30! If you’ve attended in the past, you know how important this event is to our chapter. If you haven’t yet attended, I strongly encourage you to experience this fun evening. If you haven’t bought your ticket yet, please phone Margaret Browning of Chattanooga Coca-Cola right now!! Her number is 493-0553.

One of the three purposes of EWI is to provide personal and professional development. Some of our representatives participated in the recent teleseminar on Emotional Intelligence. This is a hot topic for executives as they learn that their interactions with employees directly affect the bottom line. We learned that 98% of employees leaving jobs leave not because the job is unsatisfying but because they have an irreparable relationship with their supervisor or peers. Watch our website calendar for more of these free teleseminars. They are open to everyone, not just representatives – what a great way to share with your firm the value of EWI membership.

Also available to everyone is the Academy on Line. Our Chapter won a scholarship for this suite of 15 courses and the Board awarded it to me in August. I have taken one of the courses, “Managing Oneself” by Peter Drucker. It was fabulous. At our recent Board retreat, I shared an adapted quiz to “recognize your learning style.” Everyone learns primarily by either reading or listening. It is our responsibility to help others communicate with us in the most effective way and vice versa. If you’re interested in having your own copy of the quiz, email me. I’d love to see your results.

See you on the 19th at the Barnyard Auction!!

Many Thanks,
Nancy Harrison
